

GEMS OF THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST: A DOZEN OF THE REGION'S BEST COURSES

The Pacific Northwest, consisting of Oregon, Washington and the Canadian province of British Columbia, has often been overlooked by the larger golf world. However, some remarkable courses and high-profile PGA Tour events have caught the eye of many golfers. The following is a full dozen of the Pacific Northwest's best golf experiences.

Located in the greater Seattle area, the Gold Mountain Golf Club features 36 holes of golf. The John Harbottle designed Olympic course is the must-play course at Gold Mountain, featuring a beautiful layout nestled in the mountain environment. Expect beautiful trees, elevation changes and tight greens.

This is one of the best municipal courses in the Pacific Northwest with a price point to make every golfer happy.
